MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

- (1) There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear; and
- (2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of another person or the community.

The evidence against the defendant is substantial. She has pleaded guilty. The findings and conclusions contained in Paragraphs four, five, and six of the Pretrial Services Report are adopted. The Defendant was on felony probation when she committed the instant offense, she has failed to appear in court three times in the last seven years. She has never complied with any probation all the way to completion, and she has three theft convictions as well as a failure to identify and giving false information conviction. She is a poor bond candidate.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshal or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED this 8th day of October, 2015.

B. JANICE ELLINGTON
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
